

Stage	Probability	Definition	Exit Criteria
1. MQL (Marketing Qualified Lead)	10%	Agency has secured agreement from a prospect to take a meeting with Iris.ai. No sales contact has occurred yet. Deal is created at stage 2 (SAL) to track agency-sourced pipeline from first touch.	Sales reviews lead details (company, contact, stated interest) and decides to accept or reject.* *This stage is handled outside of the official HubSpot pipeline - the deal is created officially at stage 2 (SAL)
2. SAL (Sales Accepted Lead)	15%	Sales has reviewed the lead and confirmed it meets basic criteria (right company size, relevant industry, plausible use case). Meeting is being scheduled or is on the calendar.	First meeting held with prospect.
3. SQL (Sales Qualified Lead)	25%	First meeting complete. Prospect has articulated a specific problem Axion or Neuralith can address. Budget owner or path to budget identified. Timeline or triggering event exists (regulation, project, initiative). Technical sponsor willing to engage.	Prospect agrees to proceed with scoping exercise.
4. Scoping	35%	Free scoping exercise (1-2 weeks) is underway. Prospect has provided 20-50 representative sample documents. Technical sponsor is actively engaged. Iris.ai is assessing extraction feasibility and fit. Security/deployment requirements are being gathered.	Technical feasibility confirmed. POC proposal with success criteria and pricing sent to prospect.
5. Proposal Delivered	50%	POC proposal (£25K+ floor) is in the prospect's hands. Proposal includes scope, timeline (4-8 weeks), success criteria, and pricing. Decision maker has seen or been briefed on the proposal.	Prospect confirms intent to proceed. Verbal agreement to move forward with POC.
6. Negotiation / Paper Process	65%	Procurement, legal, or finance is actively engaged. Contract terms, MSA, DPA, or security reviews are in progress. Redlines are being exchanged. Any outstanding commercial or legal blockers are being resolved.	Final terms agreed by both parties. Contract ready for signature.
7. Verbal Commit	80%	All terms agreed. Prospect has given verbal confirmation they will sign. Contract is with signatory awaiting execution. No outstanding blockers.	Signed contract received, or approval to proceed in advance is provided by Iris AI leadership team.
Closed Won	100%	POC contract fully executed. Deal is won.
Closed Lost	0%	Prospect has declined, gone silent beyond recovery, or selected a competitor. No viable path forward.

